Make 'em Laugh "Zaniac" Puts Zing! into Family Comedy
When was the last time you laughed as hard as your kids?

With captivating amounts of energy, Alex Zerbe moves like a rubber band from one end of the stage to the other. Beatboxing, juggling, dancing, singing, music and magic are just a few of the things that led Piers Morgan of America's Got Talent to call Alex, "The total package."

The "Professional Zaniac," who's been cracking jokes onstage for almost 15 years, zigzags between physical stunts and non-stop comedy. During the show vegetables are sliced in half by flying playing cards, flaming torches and bowling balls are juggled with ease and every audience volunteer leaves the stage in triumph.

A self-described "human cartoon," his show isn't only for the kids in the family. "I try to make my show like the movie Shrek, super entertaining for the kids but there's a whole other level of comedy for teens and adults," says Zerbe.

So what are you waiting for? It's about time to treat the entire family for a laugh! Get tickets for the entire family today!

Step into the enchanting world of science and magic as a famous scientist breathes life into a friendly dinosaur in a dazzling light show!

This glow-in-the-dark adventure is visually stunning and has been praised for its cutting edge blend of puppetry, technology and dance by audience all over the world.

Don't miss out on this mesmerizing adventure!

Kootenay Children's Festival

MAY 10 & 11, 2024

Enchanting Moments: A Kaleidoscope of Joy at the Annual Kootenay Children's Festival

In a world that often seems to whirl at a frantic pace, where technology dominates children's playtime, and the simple pleasures of childhood can be overshadowed, the Kootenay Children's Festival stands as a beacon of hope and joy. The Kootenay Children's Festival is a magical celebration that brings together families, children, and communities in a whirlwind of creativity, laughter, and imagination.

The Children's Festival is a whimsical wonderland where young hearts take center stage. Held every year at the Rotary Park in Cranbrook, it's a two-day event filled with music, art, games, and delicious treats.

Diverse and Inclusive Fun: One of the festival's most remarkable aspects is its commitment to diversity and inclusion. With a rich tapestry of cultures and backgrounds, the event showcases an array of activities and performances that cater to every child's unique interests. From traditional dance performances, storytelling sessions, to numerous art activities, the festival offers a true cultural selection.

Artistic Exploration: For budding Picassos and Mozarts, the festival provides a canvas of artistic exploration. Children are encouraged to let their imaginations run wild through various creative workshops.

Community Bonding: The Children's Festival is not only about the joy of childhood but also about fostering strong community bonds. Families come together, neighbours meet neighbours, and friendships are formed under the warm sun. It's a day when the phrase "It takes a village" comes to life.

The Kootenay Children's Festival is a heartwarming reminder of the beauty and innocence of childhood. In a world that sometimes rushes past the simple joys, this event serves as a sanctuary where children can embrace their imagination, families can create lasting memories, and communities can strengthen their bonds. The Children's Festival is free, safe, and accessible to everyone.

Join us this year for the Kootenay Children's Festival

Jesus Christ Superstar

DECEMBER 31

JANUARY 12-14 & 18-20

JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR

“Jesus Christ Superstar” is a timeless rock opera that has captivated audiences around the world since its inception in 1970. With its powerful music, compelling storyline, and thought-provoking themes, this musical stands out as a perfect choice for Key City Theatre’s January production.

Composed by Andrew Lloyd Webber with lyrics by Tim Rice, “Jesus Christ Superstar” has remained relevant for over five decades. The composition combines rock, pop, and orchestral elements to create a score that is both exhilarating and moving. The musical numbers, including “I Don’t Know How to Love Him”, “What’s the Buzz” and “Superstar,” are not only memorable but also emotionally charged.

The casting for this production is stellar, with Justin Swanson taking on the role of Jesus. Swanson’s vocal prowess and stage presence make him an ideal choice to portray the complex and iconic character of Jesus Christ. Matt Van Boeyen, cast as Judas, is known for his ability to convey the inner turmoil and conflict that defines Judas’ character. Newcomer, Braedan Hark as Pilate brings a compelling presence to the stage, embodying the conflicted Roman authority figure. Blaise Edmonstone as Mary adds depth and emotion to the production with her powerful vocals and heartfelt performance. Rounding out the cast is an ensemble of actors, singers and dancers that bring professional level quality to this production.

Its fusion of rock music with a biblical narrative gives it a unique and enduring appeal. Wide open to interpretation, the artistic creations by the Key City Theatre design team will elevate an already stellar musical to a whole new meaningful level, drawing in professional lighting and set design elements. The January musicals of the past have set a high bar, and this production promises to take things to a whole new level.

Directing Jesus Christ Superstar

“Directing “Jesus Christ Superstar” is a dream come true. Growing up I listened to the album on repeat, know every song by heart and have spent years dreaming of the many ways the story could be staged. Superstar offers a blank canvas where creativity knows no bounds, allowing for interpretations of time, place, characters, and artistry that are entirely open to imagination.

After directing six January musicals at Key City Theatre, each with its unique challenges and lessons, I am thrilled to be working with a cast and crew that arguably rivals professionals. There are familiar faces in the production and some incredible newcomers to discover. Key City Theatre has brought together a dream team that’s poised to create theatrical magic on our stage.” - Brenda Burley

Producing Jesus Christ Superstar

“Mounting a production of such magnitude, especially in a place like ours, is not just challenging but profoundly rewarding. Every season, we strive to break our boundaries and this year, we decided to tackle Andrew Lloyd Webber’s timeless classic.

I feel passionate about the opportunities that theatre brings to smaller communities. Producing a full-scale musical in a remote, rural community like ours is a testament to the undying spirit of theatre and art. It’s not about the scale of the place but the magnitude of the passion. Many people assume that grand productions are reserved for big cities, but I believe that art should – and can be – accessible and celebrated everywhere.

Jesus Christ Superstar is not just a musical; it’s an experience. And bringing that experience to our community is our way of reminding everyone of the power of storytelling and music. Our cast, our crew, and our audiences come together, drawn by this shared love for theatre.” - Galen Olstead

Be sure to catch “Jesus Christ Superstar” opening New Years Eve and running January 12 – 14 and 18 – 20, 2024.

The High Bar Gang

2023-24

FEBRUARY 8, 2024 | 7:30 PM

Since the band was formed in the summer of 2010, the High Bar Gang has been bringing its unique take on old time bluegrass to the people of Western Canada.

Vocal harmony is key to the band's sound, and the blend of Shari Ulrich, Wendy Bird and Kirby Barber along with guitarist Barney Bentall and banjo player Dave Barber is simply stunning. Supported by Rob Becker on bass, and Colin Nairne on guitar and mandolin, the band's repertoire stays firmly rooted in the golden age of bluegrass music with songs by the likes of Bill Monroe, The Stanley Brothers and Del McCoury.

Highlights for the High Bar Gang include opening for Canadian music icons Blue Rodeo at Vancouver's Malkin Bowl, and the many sold out shows they have played throughout Western Canada, including the prestigious Cedar Creek Winery Concert series and the Raven's Cry Theatre in Sechelt. From the Brackendale Art Gallery and Victoria's famous Butchart Gardens to Vancouver's International Jazz Festival and San Francisco's legendary Hardly Strictly Bluegrass Festival, the band has built a solid reputation for their wonderfully upbeat brand of bluegrass and stories.

Are you ready for a night of the old time bluegrass music with the High Bar Gang featuring Shari Ulrich, Wendy Bird, Kirby Barber, Barney Bentall, Dave Barber, Rob Becker, and Colin Nairne! Get tickets to the show today!

Ballet Jörgen: Anne of Green Gables

FEBRUARY 22, 2024 | 7:30 PM

2023-24

Anne of Green Gables is a 1908 novel by Canadian author Lucy Maud Montgomery (published as L. M. Montgomery) now turned into a ballet show. Written for all ages, it has been considered a children's novel since the mid-twentieth century.

It recounts the adventures of Anne Shirley, an 11-year-old orphan girl who is mistakenly sent to Matthew and Marilla Cuthbert, a middle-aged brother and sister who had intended to adopt a boy to help them on their farm in the fictional town of Avonlea on Prince Edward Island. The novel recounts how Anne makes her way with the Cuthberts, in school, and within the town.

Anne is highly imaginative, eager to please and, at times, quite a dramatic individual. However, she is defensive about her appearance, despising her red hair and pale, thin frame. She is often quite talkative, especially when it comes to describing her fantasies and dreams. At first, stern and sharp Marilla says Anne must return to the orphanage, but after much observation and considering, along with Matthew's strong liking to Anne, she decides to let her stay.

As a child of imagination, Anne takes much joy in life and adapts quickly, thriving in the close-knit farming village. Her imagination and talkativeness soon brighten up Green Gables.

Maktub: Ashes to Alchemy

MARCH 9, 2024 | 7:30 PM

"It's the possibility of having a dream come true that makes life interesting." - Paulo Coelho

Inspired by Paulo Coelho's novel, "The Alchemist", Maktub is a lush and deeply evocative dance performance and an eternal statement transforming power of living in the singular pursuit of one's individual dreams.

Choreographer Vidya Kotamraju blends dance, global music, NAVTAR® (a unique musical instrument), voice and technology to present the gripping tale of the inner human journey juxtaposed against the backdrop of the current refugee crisis. Uplifting and reflective, the performance experiments with multi-medium storytelling to depict the protagonist's journey in discovering one's purpose in life.

In current times of turbulence, Maktub aims to bring hope and healing, through the universal language of dance.

Get ready to feel hopeful and healing on March 9th!

Easy As Pie

A Pie... A Face... How Hard Can it Be?

In Easy as Pie, two clowns attempt to perform a classic comedy routine: Getting a pie in the face. They fail, and are left to figure out why they can't complete this simple task.

Their journey to uncover the cause of their failure leads them to explore the complexities of trauma, the fallibility of memory, and the role that love plays in the healing process.

British comedy darlings James & Jamesy don clown attire and attempt to conquer this classic of comedy. They fail.

A delight for all ages.

Twin Flames

APRIL 9, 2024 | 7:30 PM

2023-24

Twin Flames offer a memorable show with the perfect blend of music, comedy and thought-provoking stories. Their synchronicity and love shine through at every show.

Twin Flames build bridges across cultures, continents, and styles, and have been celebrated internationally. This, alongside their substantial body of work, make it clear that they have something special going on. In just seven years of recording and performing as Twin Flames, the duo has accumulated 41 music awards and nominations.

Indie rock, synth rock, and folk pop are just a few of the labels critics have assigned to the music of Twin Flames. Their unique style and sound make it difficult to narrow their work to a single genre.

Twin Flames create sonic soundscapes using Indigenous spirit flutes, traditional drums, and western instruments. They craft enticing musical arrangements, standout harmonies, and beautiful rhythmic patterns. The result is a warm, perfect blend of sounds. In addition, Twin Flames shares a genuine love for songwriting that stands out lyrically and melodically for the world to hear.

A revered powerhouse couple well on their way to becoming a Canadian household name, the sky seems to be no limit for this pair. Don't miss them on April 9th!
